Truman Defeats Dewey in Astounding Upset

Pennsylvania Swings Back Into The Republican Fold

11 CONGRESSIONAL SEATS LOST TO DEMOCRATS IN SWEEP OF DEWEY IN KEYSTONE STATE

Philadelphia, Nov. 3—(AP)—Pennsylvania swung back to the Republican fold in the presidential election today but Democrats—surpassing the bravest prediction of party leaders—captured eleven congressional seats from the GOP.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey won the state's 35 electoral votes, rolling up a lead of 152,957 over President Truman. Progressive candidate Henry A. Wallace received only a little more than one per cent of the nearly 4,000,000 total votes.

With 8142 of the state's 8,292 districts reported, the count was: Dewey 1,880,357; Truman 1,727,400; Wallace 52,926.

The uncounted districts could not change the result.

Labor Vote In Western Pa. For Truman

Pittsburgh, Nov. 3—(AP)—Western Pennsylvania's much-watched labor vote went to President Truman yesterday.

The highly industrialized counties of Allegheny and Beaver and the principal mining counties in the area swept into the Democratic column.

Elsewhere, the trend, as in 1944, was Republican.

The mining vote has aroused interest after United Mine Workers' officials told their membership to vote against the president. The count showed Fayette, Greene, Westmoreland, Washington and Cambria counties—all mining centers—solidly Democratic. Elk county also went for Truman as it did for Roosevelt in 1944.

Populous Allegheny county accorded Truman 319,063 votes to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's 246,353 in 1,020 of its 1,042 precincts.

This compared with the 350,000 votes the late President Roosevelt garnered against Dewey in 1944. Dewey then collected 261,218. Henry Wallace and his third party got only 10,641 tallies in the steel city. Near complete returns from the 28 western counties gave Truman 654,350 and Dewey 615,367.

The Wallace vote, which was not counted in some places, was 18,785.

In a hotly contested congressional race Republican Rep. John McDowell of the 29th district in Pittsburgh, was defeated by Harry J. Davenport, East Liberty publisher. McDowell is a member of the House Un-American Activities committee.

Two Democratic incumbents and one Republican won their seats in Allegheny county congressional races. The Democratic winners were Rep. Herman Eberhart of the 32nd district, and Rep. Frank Buchanan of the 33rd district. Republican Rep. James Fulton defeated John J. Kane, Jr., in the 31st district.

The only major race left undecided in the county was between Congressman Robert J. Corbett, Republican incumbent, and John R. Montgomery, Democratic challenger, in the 30th district. Corbett held an undecided lead of 503 votes with 14 precincts still missing.

The Democratic sweep in Fayette county caught veteran Congressman William J. Crow of Uniontown, who was seeking his second term from the 23rd district of Fayette-Somerset counties. Crow was defeated by Anthony J. Cavallante, Uniontown Democrat and former senator.

Close Margin For Dewey In Empire State

New York, Nov. 3—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey squeaked through in his home state with the closest margin for a presidential race in recent Empire State history.

On the basis of almost complete unofficial returns, the Republican nominee's edge over President Truman was 38,410 votes in yesterday's astonishing balloting in New York state.

With 9,939 of 9,959 election districts in the state tabulated, the unofficial tally gave Dewey 2,833,175, Truman 2,794,765 and Henry A. Wallace, Progressive party, 507,449.

The 20 missing districts all were in normally Republican upstate counties.

It was necessary to go back 90 (Turn to Page Seven)

Election Hailed By Dem Chairman

Harrisburg, Nov. 3—(AP)—Philip Mathews, Democratic state chairman today hailed the re-election of President Truman as a "true expression of the popular will."

Mathews, at the same time, made this statement: "This election has proven a number of things: 'That Harry S. Truman is a fighting liberal worthy of succession to the mantle of leadership of his predecessor Franklin D. Roosevelt.' 'That straw votes and polls can never be substituted for a true expression of the popular will.' 'That presidents of state supported colleges, notably the University, might confine themselves to academic duties.' 'That Pennsylvania, as demonstrated by its election of 16 Democratic congressmen, of 93 members of the state house of representatives and of 11 state senators, is still potentially Democratic, and will follow this nationwide trend in the gubernatorial election two years hence.'"

COUNTY GIVES G. O. P. SLATE 2-1 MAJORITY

Presidential Balloting Attracts Largest Turnout Of Voters in History Of District

RETURNS IN EARLY

Traditionally Republican Warren county plumped virtually a 2 to 1 majority for the entire GOP slate in line with Pennsylvania as a whole but, against the strong national Democratic tide evident in yesterday's General Election.

The balloting drew the largest turnout in the history of Warren county as approximately 79 per cent of the county's 15,896 registered voters exercised their franchise.

For complete unofficial county vote see table on page seven.

Paradoxically, the county's largest vote was tabulated in record time by courthouse workers, with the last of the 51 precincts, Freehold Second, reporting in before midnight, less than four hours after the polls had closed.

Unofficial totals for Warren county showed:

President
Dewey (R)	8871
Truman (D)	4112
State Treasurer
Charles R. Barber (R)	8127
W. J. Lane (D)	4094
Auditor General
Weldon B. Heyburn (R)	8023
Ramsey S. Black (D)	4086
Congressman
Leon H. Gavin (R)	8259
Francis J. Mann (D)	3981
Assemblyman
Allen D. Gibson (R)	7684
William J. McGuckin (D)	4968
Registration figures for Warren county showed:
Republicans	11,600
Democrats	3,842
Others	454
Comparison of the vote totals with the registration figures shows Truman picked up 270 more votes in Warren county than the total number of registered Democrats, indicating that quite a few Republicans strayed from the party fold.
Minor party candidates didn't win any popularity contests in the county. Henry A. Wallace, Progressive Party standard bearer, polled 40 votes and Dixiecrat J. Strom Thurmond got one written vote.
In the only local fight, that for Warren county's seat in the Pennsylvania General Assembly, Republican Allen D. Gibson of Sheffield (Turn to Page Seven)

Kai-Shek Is Facing A Major Disaster

Peking, Nov. 3—(AP)—Extent of the Communist victory in Manchuria stunned government supporters in North China today.

Chinese loyal to Chiang Kai-Shek called it a "disaster" and a "monumental tragedy." They feared more setbacks now that the Communists can unleash their Manchurian armies for attacks elsewhere.

(Chiang's second loss of Manchuria—it fell to the Japanese before in itself does not necessarily portend loss of the civil war, said Associated Press Correspondent Fred Hanson in a dispatch from Shanghai.

"He never really held much of Manchuria," said Hanson. "But the manner in which he lost the enormous troops and supply losses entailed appear to have undermined the entire war machine of the Nationalists, possibly beyond repair."

The government has given no idea of its losses in Manchuria with the fall of Mukden.

BARKLEY ARISES TO CHECK LATE RETURNS

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 3—(AP)—Sen. Alben W. Barkley, who retired at his home here last night after listening to early vote returns on his radio, didn't sleep too well.

The 70-year-old running mate of President Truman, who wound up a two-fisted campaign here the day before election, got up during the wee small hours of the morning, checked latest returns and declared: "It looks good."

Barkley then went back to bed.

LIBRARY PLAN REJECTED Kitting, Nov. 3—(AP)—A proposal to establish a county library was rejected 3776 to 2872 by Armstrong county voters yesterday. A companion proposal to levy a half-mill assessment to support the library was defeated 4446 to 1981.

The Winner, and Still Champ!

PRESIDENT HARRY S. TRUMAN

Victor Is Cheered By Well-Wishers At Headquarters

Kansas City, Nov. 3—(AP)—President Truman, a smiling, happy man, received the congratulations of well wishers today, as he won one of history's greatest political upsets to win a term in the White House in his own right.

Cheers went up from his headquarters in the Hotel Muehlebach penthouse as word of Governor Thomas E. Dewey's concession of defeat was conveyed to him.

A long line of old friends, including newspapermen who have covered his campaign, swarmed into the living room of the suite to shake the president's hand and to congratulate him on the "give-'em-hell" campaign which upset the dolesters.

The impromptu celebration also included secret service men, who dropped their non-political role to shower their congratulations upon the boss to whom the whole White House detail is devoted.

The joy of Henry Nicholson, big, rosy-cheeked Irishman, knew no bounds. One of the assistants to James Rowley, chief of the White House detail, Nicholson has been a pronounced partisan throughout 31,500 miles of campaigning with Mr. Truman.

A former capital police officer, he got his taste for politics in ward 16 in Democratic Boston.

The others on the detail appeared just as happy.

Mr. Truman was surrounded at one point by old comrades of World War I with whom he served in France.

He had his picture taken shaking hands with Federal Judge Richard B. Duncan, and other friends.

The president was smiling as the full import of his victory became apparent.

Almost singlehandedly, in a series of cross-country stopping tours which would have worn out a weaker man, the president saved victory from apparent defeat and swept a Democratic Congress into office with him.

Charles G. Ross, the president's secretary and an old high school mate of Mr. and Mrs. Truman in Independence, beamed at everyone he saw.

"The president was certain some hours ago of his election," Ross said.

Nevertheless, when the press association bulletins on Governor Dewey's concession was brought in, Mr. Truman smiled broadly.

The president was expected to (Turn to Page Seven)

G. O. P. CANDIDATE CONCEDES DEFEAT AS OPPONENT LEADS WITH 304 ELECTORAL VOTES

By The Associated Press

President Truman, in an astounding upset of pre-balloting predictions, today won the presidency. He will have a Democratic senate and house to work with him.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, his Republican opponent, conceded Mr. Truman's election at 11:15 a. m. EST.

At that time, Mr. Truman was leading in 28 states having 304 electoral votes. Needed to win are 266 electoral votes.

Dewey was leading in 16 states with 189 electoral votes. Four states with 38 electoral votes had been captured, or were leaning to, States' Rights Candidate J. Strom Thurmond.

New James H. Haggerty, Dewey's press secretary announced that Dewey had conceded the election in a telegram to Mr. Truman. It read:

"My heartiest congratulations to you on your election and every good wish for a successful administration. I urge all Americans to unite behind you in support of every effort to keep our nation strong and establish peace in the world."

Control Of Congress Is A Landslide

Washington, Nov. 3—(AP)—Democrats grabbed control of Congress today. The majority in the house approached a landslide.

The voters—in a startling upset—unseated 50 or more GOP house members, and gave the Democrats a majority in the senate, as seemingly they decided to revamp the legislative body that President Truman called "do-nothing."

If the breath-taking trends continue, the new congress probably will look something like this:

House—Democrats—242 seats. Republicans—192 seats.

American Labor—1 seat.

(The GOP controls the 80th congress house, 243 to 185—with two American Labor members and five vacancies.)

Senate—Democrats—54 seats. Republicans—42 seats.

(The GOP now controls the senate 51 to 45).

Up to 6:45 a. m. the Democrats already had turned out six Republican senators in winning 15 of the 33 contested seats. They led in six other races. Republicans had elected only seven and were leading in two races. Only one-third of the senate's 96 members had elections this year.

In the battle royal for supremacy in the house—the chamber the Republicans were sure they couldn't lose—Democrats had ousted 40 of more Republicans and one American Labor Party member, Rep. Leo Isaacson of New York.

Not one Democrat who stood for re-election had been turned down.

Among other personalities, Rep. Harold Knutson of Minnesota, author of last year's Republican tax-cutting bill, was trailing in his Minnesota election. He is chairman of the house ways and means committee.

Rep. Fred Hartley (R-N.J.), co-author of the Taft-Hartley labor act, did not stand for re-election. His district elected a Democrat to take his place.

But House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, and most other Republican big wheels in the house survived the Democratic onslaught. These included the Republican leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, Chairman John Taber (N.Y.) of the appropriations committee, Chairman Charles A. Eaton (N.J.) of the foreign affairs committee, Chairman Leo E. Allen (Ill.) of the rules committee, Chairman Jesse P. Wolcott (Mich.) of the banking committee, and Chairman Clifford R. Hope (Kas.) of the agriculture committee.

Sharp Decline Is Recorded In Stocks

New York, Nov. 3—(AP)—The stock market greeted the Democratic victory today with one of the sharpest business declines in several years.

Losses of fractions to more than 5 points were scored by key issues.

A rally developed soon after the initial knock-out selling wore off. It was not decisive.

Heavy trading took place before noon, then activity tended to dry up later.

Heartiest Congratulations Extended Winner By Loser

New York, Nov. 3—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today conceded the presidential election to President Truman.

The Republican presidential nominee's press secretary, James H. Haggerty, announced at 11:15 a. m. that Dewey had sent a telegram to Mr. Truman conceding the election. The text of the telegram:

"My heartiest congratulations to you on your election and every good wish for a successful administration, and I urge all Americans to unite behind you in support of every effort to keep our nation strong and free and establish peace in the world."

The telegram was addressed to the president at Kansas City, Mo. It was signed "Thomas E. Dewey."

Before Dewey wired Mr. Truman, he telephoned his vice-presidential running mate, Gov. Earl Warren of California, and talked the matter over with him. They agreed to concede.

Commenting on the concession, Haggerty told reporters: "We were waiting for Ohio."

When it became apparent the president was going to hold his lead in the Buckeye state, Dewey decided the election was lost.

While the announcement was being made, Dewey was having a late breakfast in his suite.

When Dewey reached his decision to concede the election, his wife and 70-year-old mother, Mrs. George M. Dewey, were in the room.

Women members of Dewey's staff, present for Haggerty's announcement, were in tears.

Seldom had a man been more confident of success than Dewey was up to last evening. When Haggerty's announcement was relayed downstairs in the hotel, Miss Wilhelmina Schilling, 22, a stenographer on the governor's staff at Albany, broke into tears.

"It's awful," she wept. "It was my first vote."

Dewey kept a long vigil last night as the returns, which stunned his aides, moved into his suite.

At 4:55 a. m. Haggerty told reporters: "The governor is still confident he will win."

Dawn Finds G. O. P. National Headquarters Looking Glum

By HAL BOYLE

New York, Nov. 3—(AP)—Republicans who stayed up all night at national headquarters to celebrate looked at dawn today like haggard brides left waiting at the church.

It was so quiet around the Hotel Roosevelt that you could hear a pin-fall.

But if there was a politician in the place he wisely kept his mouth shut. There were no Republican chins any longer able to fall open. They had all done that hours before.

It was a scene of political carnage over which spread the lengthening shadow by the little man from Missouri. Harry S. Truman, stubbornly riding out threats of a Republican landslide, had lived up to the tough motto of his state—"you got to show me."

Win, lose or draw, he had—almost single-mouthed—smashed Republican hopes of gaining control of both congress and the presidency.

The tidal flood of Democratic votes completely ruined the Grand Old Party's brand new victory party.

It was a Manhattan version of the eve before Waterloo.

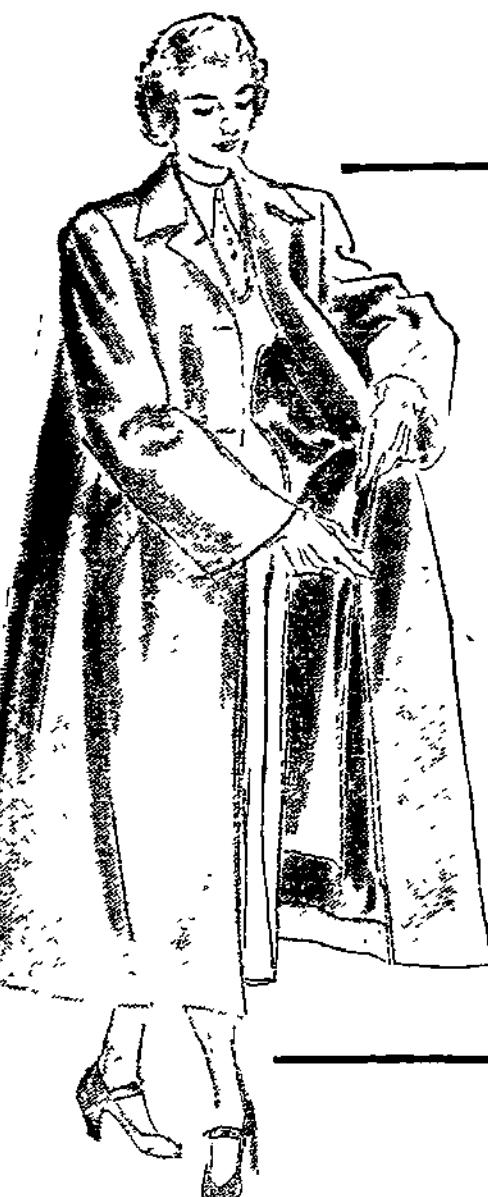

Some 300 happy party workers crowded into the gold ballroom of the hotel, confident they would see a Democratic debacle.

A score or more television and newsreel cameras were trained on the flag-draped balcony, where Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was expected to deliver his victory speech before midnight. Rumor said his aides had composed the speech two days ago.

The crowd stirred uneasily as early returns showed Truman ahead. But they cheered when Campaign manager Herbert Brownell, grinning widely, stepped out on the gallery and minimized the figures—again predicting victory. It was the last grin of the evening.

Some Republicans left then, sure Dewey had won. But they were probably the only ones who got a good night's rest.

Election Proves Government Is Controlled By Minority

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, Nov. 3—(AP)—An American tradition still holds true, and yesterday's elections prove it again.
It's this:
Our government is elected by only a minority of the people able to vote—although it's elected by a majority of those actually voting.
Why?
Because so many people of voting age don't take part in the elections. All this has happened again and again in American history.
The total count from Tuesday's vote was not yet complete as this was written early today, so the figures here will be approximate.
But even if they're off a couple of million, the point still will be proved.
Say that yesterday's vote totaled 10,000,000. (That's a fair guess.) And say the winner got 26,000,000 votes to 24,000,000 for the loser.
But, you say, that 26,000,000 is a majority of the 50,000,000 votes cast in yesterday's election.
It is, in fact. It's a clear majority of 52 per cent—of the votes cast. But—
That winning 26,000,000 still is only a small part of the total number of people in this country who are of voting age—This will show how:
The census bureau figures that this year there are about 94,641,000 people 21 years or older—and therefore old enough to vote—in this country.
(Some of those 94,641,000—maybe about 2,000,000 are aliens and mentally deficient people who can't vote. But for the sake of illustration, let the 96,641,000 figure stand.)
Remember: Only about 50,000,000 of those 94,641,000 voted.
So a total of 26,000,000 votes is a minority—28 per cent—of the total number of people of voting age, although it's a 52 per cent majority of the votes actually cast.
Therefore, a minority of people of voting age were able once again to set up a government of their choosing for the majority of voting-age people.

GOP Sweeps Election In Clarion Co.

Republican candidates swept all major offices in Tuesday's general election in Clarion county, complete but unofficial returns from the county's 52 voting precincts showed early today.
In the only local contest, Palge Varner, Clarion borough World War II veteran defeated his Democratic opponent, R. R. Whitmer of Clarion in the race for the general assembly seat. Varner polled 6,088 votes, while Whitmer counted 5,768.
Clarion county voters also gave Republican Congressman Leon H. Gavin of Oil City a sizable plurality over his Elk county opponent, Francis Manno. Gavin's vote was 6,792 while Manno's was 4,753.
Gavin's vote in Clarion county was the largest polled by any candidate in that county.
The results of the various races follow:
President—Dewey, 6,760; Truman, 4,865; Wallace, 41.
State Treasurer—Barber, 6,658; Lane, 6,025.
Auditor General—Heyburn, 6,093; Black, 4,992.
Congress—Gavin, 6,792; Manno, 4,753.

TITUSVILLE GIVES GOVERNOR A LEAD

Titusville, Nov. 3—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey carried this Crawford county community by a margin of 1801 to 1108 for President Truman in the first complete city vote reported in Pennsylvania. Henry A. Wallace received 11 votes.
Four years ago, Dewey won here over Franklin D. Roosevelt, 1,664 to 865.

Rep. Gavin Is Elected For A Third Term

Rep. Leon H. Gavin, Oil City, won a smashing victory in his contest for re-election to congress from the 19th Pennsylvania district, in Tuesday's general election.
Gavin, whose re-election is for a third term in the house of representatives, defeated his Democratic opponent, Francis J. Manno, of Jefferson county, upwards of 18,000 votes on the basis of returns from 297 of the district's 289 voting precincts. The vote was: Gavin 42,840; Manno, 24,314.
Gavin carried each of the six counties of the district—Venango, Forest, Clarion, Warren, Jefferson and Elk. His greatest majorities were rolled up in Venango, Jefferson and Warren counties.
The Oil City congressman's margin of victory in Tuesday's balloting was slightly below that of two years ago when he won his second congressional term by 23,326 votes.

Evening Times Scoop In 1916 Recalled By Close Election

Excerpts from the Warren Evening Times of Wednesday, November 8, 1916, recall the exciting election that year, which resulted in Woodrow Wilson defeating Charles Evans Hughes, compared by many analysts to the race between Truman and Dewey.
In 1916 the unofficial vote in Warren county gave Hughes less than 800 lead over Wilson. Beshlin lost the county to Bleakley for congress by approximately 417 votes. Election returns up to 3 o'clock a. m., indicated the election of Hughes, but the Associated Press refused to confirm this report. The Republican party claimed 27 electoral votes to nose out the Democratic claim of 248.
The Times was one of two or three papers in the entire United States which carried a beat on the election of Wilson. S. E. Walker, publisher at that time, and his son, W. A. Walker, present publisher, refused to concede anything. They stuck to the Western Union wire all night and beat most of the country on the first returns from California.
From page one of the Times of November 8, 1916, evening edition:
"Over 1200 telephone calls were answered at the Times offices by 3 o'clock a. m. Four operators were kept on duty. Live gain around the Times office continued long after the streets were deserted. Fifty members of the old guard stuck to the office until the morning extra was on the press. When the change began after one o'clock, they cheered themselves hoarse for president Wilson. The extra was put on the press at 3:30 o'clock and by 4:00 o'clock, carriers were delivering it to homes in the borough. Fifteen hundred extras were sold on the street. The Times was the first and only paper to be circulated in Warren giving the news that Woodrow Wilson was probably re-elected president of the United States. The Jamestown Post, last morning paper to reach Warren, came out in scare heads announcing the election of Hughes. All other city papers reaching Warren this morning carried the same 'news.'
The evening edition increased Bleakley's lead over Beshlin to 574—Hughes increased his lead over Wilson by 819 in the county. At eight o'clock this morning, both Republican and Democratic national chairmen claimed the election for their candidates. It is evident that an official count would be required in some states.—The managers of both Wilson and Hughes claimed the election at 10 o'clock this morning. Wilson gained steadily as returns from the far west were compiled. At one o'clock p. m., revised figures on probable makeup of electoral college, based on press dispatches showed the presidential issue still in doubt. Best figures indicate that President Wilson has 255, Hughes 230, and 45 still in doubt.
From the Thursday, November 9, edition—"WE HAVE THEM SKINNED A MILE," says McCormick, Democratic chairman claims 288 electoral votes. Fraud is charged in Minnesota count. New Hampshire goes into Wilson column. Attorney General Gregory ordered Department of Justice agents to California today. When notified of the Democratic victory in New Hampshire, McCormick said, "It's all over. We have them skinned a mile. I stand by my figures of yesterday which gave 288 electoral votes to Wilson."

One look!...
One ride!...
You'll know it's...
the modern design for '49 new Hudson

Come in, see the car that's years ahead—drive the New Hudson—experience the amazing readability, comfort and safety of the only car you step down into!

Here's your chance to get the thrill of a real discovery—to see and feel what one of the great advances in motor-car history offers you.

You'll see a Hudson of distinguished, streamlined beauty and low-built silhouette that is instantly recognizable because it is the natural result of a basically new design principle—a principle that puts this car so far ahead it is a protected investment in motor-car value! The key to this new design principle is a recessed floor. The New Hudson is the only car you step down into!

By using a "step-down" zone in an exclusive, all steel Monobilt Body-and-frame, Hudson achieves the lowest car on the highway—only five feet from ground to top—while maintaining more head room than in any mass-produced car built today!

But no amount of looking at this amazing car—beautiful as it is—can equal the thrill of a Hudson ride! And you are invited to enjoy that ride today! Hudson has a smooth, lug-the-road way of going in cross-winds and on every conceivable kind of highway. When you see the way it takes even the sharpest curves, you'll know once again that this car has "The modern design for '49"—and for years to come!

Hudson's remarkable ride is largely due to the fact that its "step-down" design provides the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car—yet road clearance is ample! It is a widely recognized fact that the lower to the ground a car can be built, the more stability it will have and the safer it will be.

You sense a delightful conformity to the road the minute you begin your ride, and this stability, plus the protection of riding encircled by a sturdy box-section steel frame, is a grand experience in serene, safe well-being.

This grand feeling is further heightened by the remarkable ease with which this car is controlled. You enjoy this generous roominess in complete relaxation as the New Hudson glides smoothly along.

We cordially invite you to see and drive the New Hudson, to thoroughly enjoy the ride that comes only with "The modern design for '49!"

MAKING THINKING PROGRESS

One of the remarkable things about the 1948 presidential campaign was that nobody, so far as we know, quoted George Washington's admonition about "entangling alliances" or inserted it in a political speech. This may be taken as proof that the American trend of thought has changed, not only since Washington's time but in the last generation.

Twenty-eight years ago this country had another first postwar election. There was no such thing then as a bipartisan foreign policy. There was not even a pretense of it, nor was it thought necessary. The League of Nations was the issue, and opinion was sharply divided. To join or not to join: that was the question.

We remember some of the non-joiners' arguments in the 1920 campaign. We remember how they bristled with indignation at the thought of our having to contribute armed forces, as League members, if we were called upon to help put down the threat of future war. Let 'em settle their own troubles and fight their own wars—that was the general idea.

The non-joiners were short-sighted in refusing to face the obligation of having to help in preventing future conflicts. But they were not as short-sighted as they would be today. For the science of physical destruction has progressed farther since Warren G. Harding was elected president than it did between the Washington and Harding administrations.

It doesn't seem that 1920 was so very long ago. But in 1920 there were no 10,000-mile-range airplanes. Our two oceans were still effective barriers against the outer world. The war that had ended two years before had seemed so horrible that any serious thought of a repetition was fantastic. There were frightened speculations as to what "the next war" might be like. But the actuality of saturation bombings, atomic explosives, guided missiles and bacteriological weapons was something the general public never dreamed of.

Sociologists and psychologists tell us, with considerable truth, that one of the perils of civilization is mankind's failure to catch up, culturally and emotionally, with its scientific progress, to say nothing of its increasing efficiency in self-destruction. But the 1948 election was a heartening sign that the American branch of mankind, as a whole, is at least conscious of its place in the world.

While there were naturally dissenters in both major parties, there was no official denial of the responsibility that goes with this nation's strength and resources. There was no assumption that the United States exists for itself alone, or that it is invulnerable, or that "entangling alliances" are to be avoided if peace is to be attained.

In this admission of reality, the American people gave notice that their thinking is not far behind their material progress. At the same time they reconciled that material progress with their heritage from the founders of the republic—a heritage that proclaims the ideal of freedom and justice, not only for residents of the North American continent, but for all mankind.

WARREN COUNTY VOTE

Warren county remains in the Republican fold, as does the state of Pennsylvania, although Democrats have captured eleven congressional seats from the GOP. In retaliation the Republicans have elected a State Treasurer, in Charles Barber, of Erie, and Auditor General, in Weldon Heyburn, to offices held by the Democrats since 1938.

Locally William J. ("Bill") McGuckin, making his second bid for election to a Democratic office, lost to Assemblyman Allan Gibson, Republican, of Sheffield, but the Warren man has the satisfaction of leading the ticket in the county and topping his opponent in the Fourth Ward, Warren borough, and Mead 2nd district.

Representative Leon H. Gavin, of Oil City, was re-elected to a fourth term in congress defeating his Democratic opponent Francis J. Manno, of Jefferson county, by upwards of 18,000 votes. Gavin's margin of victory, however, was slightly below that of two years ago.

Plant physiologists have discovered that molybdenum, the iron-like metal used in steel alloys, is also found in healthy plants. Maybe that explains the rugged resistance of some restaurant peas we've encountered.

Here And There

THIS AND THAT: Warren, along with a number of other towns on the route, will probably lose its airmail service before next April, it is learned with the announcement that All American Aviation plans to start operating passenger service planes through this section in the spring; oral arguments in the suspension of pick-up service will be held in Washington Thursday but the Post Office Department has already recommended the abandonment of the service and there is little doubt that final government approval will be given; because of lack of adequate airport facilities here there will be no air service for mail or passengers since the large type planes which will be put into service cannot be accommodated here—the nearest community now planning air service is Jamestown where arrangements are already under way to enlarge the airport runways and other facilities; the date of the All-Star Broadway review and follies, sponsored by the Zem Temple in the Warner theatre in Erie has been changed to November 18, it has been learned in Warren; Mrs. O. E. Williams, wife of Dr. Oliver E. Williams, well known evangelist and composer, who died in Pontiac, Mich. last week, composed such popular hymns as "A Child of His Care," "Look To The Hill of God," "A Blind Man of Jericho," and "Oh Lamb of God." Three holidays loom this month for many state and federal employees as well as those who work in banks, after Tuesday, Election Day, Armistice Day is coming up to be followed by Thanksgiving Day two weeks later. Ever see a presidential campaign when candidates' buttons were so scarce—we don't recall seeing any in Warren during the past few weeks. Gov. James H. Duff suggests that Pennsylvanians contribute "generously of their time, skill and funds," to promote the Citizenship program of the Girl Scouts of America, making the comment in a statement noting that observance of Girl Scout Week in Pennsylvania and the nation opened Sunday, October 31, the birthday of Mrs. Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the movement—the week marks the 36th anniversary of the movement in America. James and Sam DeStefano have arrived home after a two months' vacation with their parents in Italy. They were met in Naples by their brother Mike, a former Warren resident, with

YMCA Plans World Service Institute Thursday Evening

Representatives of the Y. M. C. A. of the North West District of Pennsylvania will meet in the Warren YMCA Thursday evening to hear Orrin Magill, veteran "Y" World Service Secretary from China. The institute on World Service of the YMCA will be under in the most needy countries, and especially in China from where the speaker of the evening, Mr. Magill, has so recently returned. Mr. Magill first went to China in 1913, and against his experiences during those years he now has the conditions during the recent years there to bring a splendid interpretation of events in that tragic land. He is now Director of Secretarial Training for all China, and in this position has traveled in recent months throughout most of both eastern and western China. Few Americans have had his opportunity to study at first hand the course of modern Chinese events against the background of China of thirty years ago. Mr. Magill will be in Warren over the week-end, and will address the Rotary Club on Monday noon at the Y. W. C. A.

Election Notes

Congratulations to officials of the 51 polling places in Warren county. For the first time in our recollection all districts had reported by midnight. It was a swell job, and can be more appreciated after one realizes that all those workers had been on the job since early morning, some of them since 6:30 a. m. For all of them, it meant being on the job at least seventeen hours.

While Warren county remained in the traditional Republican fold, the election generally is regarded as the most astounding in the history of the county.

Very few of the faithful remained at their radios throughout the night. Times-Mirror telephones became quite silent after one o'clock this morning.

In Warren county the turnout was almost eighty per cent. Comparisons with other presidential years were not available. Over 12,000 of the approximately 15,000 votes were cast.

J. Strom Thurmond received one vote in the county, and Wallace 88, on the basis of unofficial returns.

Art Crouse, who has been invalided at his home at Hemlock for a number of years, was carried to the polls in Glade 2nd district, and voted from his wheel chair. Made Art pretty happy for it has been a long time since he has had an opportunity to cast a ballot.

Warren county, instead of its usual three to one or more for the Republican ticket, turned in a total count of about two to one, the Democratic candidates showing surprising strength here. Allen Gibson, successful candidate for assembly on the Republican slate, received 7634 votes to top Bill McGuckin's 4693.

Apparently the folks in Triumph township didn't care about any part of the election except to do their part to put Governor Tom Dewey in the presidential chair. For Dewey they cast 74 votes against 11 for President Truman. Barber topped Lane for state treasurer by a score of 3 to 1. Heyburn and Black tied for auditor general at 2 and 2. The politicians will be shaking their heads over this one for years.

The Corry Journal was one of the few, if not the only paper in the area to issue an "extra" at an early hour this morning.

Democratic headquarters, in the Eagles Building, held a "lively political wake," as did all other Democratic centers in the nation.

The usual large crowd gathered around the court house, but activities there closed down much earlier than usual because of the fine work of officials in the polling districts in getting in their results.

First precincts reporting at the Times-Mirror were in the first and ninth wards in the borough; Freehold 2nd and Southwest 2nd were last arriving, about 11:45 o'clock.

James S. Berger, Coudersport, former Warren citizen, son of the late Clare A. Berger, has been re-elected to the state senate from the 25th district. Jimmy has a host of friends in Warren and his victory will cause no surprise here.

Forest County Gives Dewey 2-1 Margin

Republican presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey carried Forest county by a margin approximating two to one, according to complete, but unofficial returns from the county's 14 precincts following Tuesday's general election. Dewey's vote was 1,209 compared with President Harry S. Truman's 637.

Ira M. Fox, Republican, won the Forest county seat in the general assembly by defeating Charles Carlisle Democrat. The vote was: Fox, 1,112 and Carlisle, 799.

Congressman Leon H. Gavin, Republican of Oil City, also carried Forest county over his Democratic opponent, Francis Manno of Johnsonburg, Elk county. Gavin's vote was 1,223 to Manno's 664.

Charles Barber of Erie outdistanced W. J. Laiz, Democrat, in the state treasurer's race. Barber polled 1,189 votes and Lane, 672.

Weldon B. Heyburn, Republican, won the auditor general race from Ramsey S. Black, Democrat, insofar as Forest county voters were concerned. They gave Heyburn 1,162 votes to 676 for Black.

Hospital Alumni Elects Officers

The November meeting of the Warren General Hospital Alumni Association was held at the nurses' home, with President Jessie Cuthbertson in charge. One of the principal items of business to come before the session was the election of the following to serve as officers in the coming year:

President, Mrs. Mable Decker; first vice president, Miss Catherine Sullivan; second vice president, Mrs. Genevieve Kropf; directors, Mrs. Ethel Lundgren and Miss Lillie Edgett; nominating committee, Mrs. Isabelle Danielson and Mrs. Blanche Schimmelteng. Members of the group also voted to increase wages to $9 for an eight-hour shift, effective today.

Mrs. Gertrude Babcock was appointed delegate to the district meeting to be held at Titusville on November 27.

To conclude the evening, refreshments were served by Mrs. Edith Danielson and her committee.

Sacred Concert to Be Presented in Covenant Church

Rev. Frederick A. Jacobson, pastor of Bethany Covenant church at DuBois, will present a sacred concert of piano music at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the Bethlehem Covenant church, Market street near Third avenue.

The concert is being sponsored by the Landordahl Bible Class of the church and is open to the public. An offering will be received to take care of the expense of planting new shrubbery in front of the church.

Rev. F. A. Jacobson

Pastor Jacobson is a pianist of note, having spent five years as evangelistic pianist and secretary for several leading evangelists and having appeared in 42 states.

He is a graduate of the Metropolitan Conservatory of Music in Chicago, Ill., and has studied music at the American Conservatory, Chicago Musical College, Moody Bible Institute, North Park College, and Morning Side College of Sioux City, Iowa.

His program will consist chiefly of gospel hymns in variations, in which field he excels. Those who have heard him play speak very highly in appreciation of his talents.

In addition to his musical numbers, Rev. Jacobson will bring a brief gospel message during the service.

VFW Auxiliary Is Hostess For Gold Star Mothers Party

The Auxiliary of VFW Post 631 held a delightful dinner party in the private dining room of Hotel Carver to honor Gold Star Mothers of the community. Twenty-three Gold Star Mothers were present and each was presented with a lovely corsage of baby mums.

The tables were beautifully set with red, white and blue streamers and each had a floral centerpiece of gold colored baby mums and marigolds. Gold stars and candles completed the table appointments and were repeated about the dining room. A large three-tiered cake, decorated in gold color and topped with a large gold star, supplemented the dessert course.

Music was furnished during the serving of the dinner. The senior vice president, Mrs. Betty Huber, introduced the speakers for the affair, Miss Mollie Pickering, home economics extension representative of Warren county, and Mrs. Helen Duffy, of Knox, district president of the VFW Auxiliary.

Following the banquet, a meeting was held in the post rooms and three new members were accepted into the unit. A social hour for the Gold Star guests was enjoyed after this meeting.

Committee members deserving great credit for the success of the function were Mrs. Betty Huber, Mrs. John Casses, Sr., and Miss Mary Blocher.

Missionary Group Observing World Community Day

On Friday afternoon, starting at 2:30 o'clock, the Interdenominational Mission Study Group will hold its regular meeting in the Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed church, with St. Paul's Lutheran church assisting.

The program will be led by the president, Mrs. Ernest Kaebnick, with devotions by Mrs. Carl Lundahl. Mrs. Everett Borg, soloist, has selected Malotte's arrangement of the 23rd Psalm.

The Rev. J. Zimmerman, of Dunkirk, N. Y., will be the guest speaker and has selected for his topic "Peace Is My Responsibility."

Attention is also called to announcement that November 5 is to be observed as World Community Day and this will be the second time this mission group has sponsored the local observance. Following the program, tea will be served by the hostess church.

The president urges that all women interested in doing good for the world be present, for "only in good attendance can our influence be felt." Mrs. Kaebnick also urges that all minister's wives of member churches be present, as well as presidents of the many missionary societies.

Close Margin For Dewey In Empire State

(From Page One)

In New York state to find closer race than the one between the two major party candidates this year. In 1938 Benjamin Franklin Roosevelt defeated Grover Cleveland by 14,373.

The next closest battle in recent years was in 1928 when Herbert Hoover edged out Al Smith by 4,481.

Truman's showing in the state is an amazing one in the face of elections by most political observers that he would lose the state by at least 300,000. Some enthusiastic Republicans had claimed victory by a million votes.

The president's dogged campaign against the 80th congress recently paid off in New York's congressional alignment.

The Democrats picked up eight congressional seats in yesterday's voting, seven at the expense of a G. O. P. and one from an American Labor Party member.

These victories will give the Democrats 23 seats in the new congress, 21 Republicans and one ALP representative, Vito Marcantonio, to be re-elected. In the 80th congress, there were 28 Republicans from New York, 15 Democrats and two ALP members.

ELECTION NOTES

William J. McGuckin, popular Warren man who lost the fight for General Assembly to Republican Allan D. Gibson, had the satisfaction of leading the Democratic ticket in Warren county for a second time. McGuckin polled total of 4693 ballots against 4112 for President Truman. McGuckin also polled the highest Democratic tally in his unsuccessful campaign for Prothonotary two years ago.

The Democratic victory to President Truman, was especially appointing to Jesse G. Smith, Warren county's Republican County party chairman. Smith took over the GOP helm in the county years ago—the year after the election of a Republican Governor—and has never had the assurance of backing a winner for the presidency in his long term of office.

G.O.P. Candidate Concedes Defeat

Washington from Independence, Mo., tomorrow, then go to Key West, Fla. Sunday, according to Washington friends who have been in touch with his Kansas City headquarters.

Even before the President's victory was assured, the returns had clinched Democratic control of Congress, wresting it away from the Republicans who won it two years ago.

The indicated congressional lineup is:

Senate: 54 Democrats and 42 Republicans.
House: 246 Democrats; 188 Republicans, and one American Labor.

While these may not be the final figures, it is clear that Mr. Truman will have a working majority of his own party in Congress. To this majority he can submit the legislative program over which he and the GOP-run Congress quarreled—quarreled so much that Mr. Truman called Congress "idiot" and the "second worst" in history.

For Mr. Truman, the win was a tremendous personal achievement. With a fighting campaign, the man from Missouri roused his party from despondency and led it to a victory which almost all its leaders except the President himself had written off months ago as an impossibility.

For Dewey and the "team" around him it was the bitter end of a 40 year dream. The New York governor has been aiming at and working for the presidency that long.

He broke precedent when he captured the Republican nomination this year after a losing race against Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1944. He can hold no hope that his party will entrust its banner to him again.

In Wall Street, which had anticipated a Republican victory, the initial reaction to the election's outcome was a break in prices of many stocks. Utility stock prices especially fell.

Presumably, the selling was dictated chiefly by uncertainty over what new law affecting business may be enacted by the new Democratic administration. President Truman opposed the cuts in personal income taxes voted by the Republican 80th Congress. When he called Congress into special session last summer, he asked for revival of the wartime tax on "excess profits" of corporations.

U. S. Steel cracked 4 points on an opening transaction of 15,000 shares. A modest recovery took place and then another relapse. General Motors started a 4 1/2 points lower and later recovered around one point.

field won reelection over his Democratic opponent, William J. McGuckin of Warren.

Gibson carried every one of the county's 51 precincts, except four. McGuckin led Warren's Fourth ward by a wide margin, 340 to 162, and held slim leads in Mead, Second, Pittsfield First and Watson townships.

However only two districts, Warren Fourth Ward and Mead Second, voted Democratic for the remainder of the candidates.

In the fight for Congressman from the six-county 19th Congressional district, Warren county voters backed a winner, Republican incumbent Leon H. Gavin, of Oil City, in his fight against the Democratic candidate, Francis J. Manno, of Johnstown.

Warren county's unofficial plurality for Gavin was 8259 to 3991.

Sharp Decline Is Recorded In Stocks

Many pivotal issues opened more than one hour after the start of trading on the exchange. Big blocks of such shares as U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors and Standard Oil (NJ) were marked down sharply.

The delay in opening so many issues was almost without precedent in Stock Exchange operations. Selling orders were so heavy that it took time for the specialists in the stock concerned to match them with buying orders.

Sales in the first hour alone totaled nearly 1,000,000 shares and in the second hour about an even 1,000,000.

11 Congressional Seats Lost to Democrats in Sweep of Dewey in Keystone State

Seventeen Republicans and sixteen Democrats won elections to the 81st congress which convenes next January.

The lead was won on the final race decided by the reelection of Rep. Robert J. Corbett (R) in Allegheny county's 30th district. The contest was so close the result was not determined until nearly 12 hours after the polls closed.

Sixteen Democrats and sixteen Republicans had won election to the 81st congress which convenes next January. Republican incumbent Robert J. Corbett clung to a slim 505-vote lead over Democrat J. R. Montgomery in the 30th district in Allegheny county. Fourteen precincts remained to be reported.

In the state legislature, Democrats more than doubled their voice in the lower house with a gain of 53 seats. Republicans gained one vote in the senate with the defeat of Sen. Jerome J. Jansan, of Philadelphia.

This was the lineup:
House: 116 Republicans, 91 Democrats, one contest not decided.
Senate: 35 Republicans, 15 Democrats.

Philip Mathews, Democratic state chairman, called the congressional results a "rebuttal" to the Republicans. He noted that Pennsylvania "has regrettably fallen short" of a vote that would have turned its electoral votes to President Truman.

And he pledged that despite loss of two fiscal offices, Democratic legislators will "check up on any Republican tendency to interpret this result as a grant to write a blank check on the treasury."

issue an official statement later in the day.

A fat, little man came out of an adjoining room where he was closeted briefly with the president. He was Eddie Jacobson, former haberdashery store partner of the president. Almost overcome with joy, he told the reporter: "I cried and I prayed for this."

As he left the hotel, the president was asked, "can you tell us how that Truman poll works?"

"No, I can't," he said, "when you win you can't say anything about it. I'm just happy."

Then he said, "talk to Charlie, he'll tell you about it." He referred to Press Secretary Charles Ross.

Mr. Truman not only had forecast his own victory in campaign talks but Democratic control of both houses of congress.

His voice cracked with emotion and his face beamed with happiness as he received the best wishes of scores of friends and Missouri neighbors who crowded into his penthouse quarters in the Hotel Muehlebach.

Market Quotations

New York, Nov. 3—(P)—Heavy selling hit the stock market at the opening today in the first reaction to the election. Big blocks of stock appeared frequently on a racing ticker tape. Individual issues dropped fractions to more than 3 points. Most of the selling hit stocks that are usually more or less inactive. Most key issues were not traded in the first few minutes after the opening bell. A block of 50,000 shares of Commonwealth and Southern sold for a loss of 4 1/2 of a point. 2,000 shares of American Telephone were marked down 2 points. Utility issues have been bid up recently in prospect of a change in the administration. Others lower included Curtiss-Wright, Remington Rand, Woolworth, United Corp., Safeway Stores, Pennsylvania Railroad, U. S. Lines, American Air Lines, Mission Corp., Mid-West Petroleum, and Continental Motors.

New York, Nov. 3—(P)—Noon stocks: Vol. 1,840,000.

Erie Vets Cancel Red Jacket Game

The Erie Vets have canceled their scheduled game with the Warren Red Jackets at Erie Stadium next Sunday afternoon, and will battle the Massillon (O.) Tigers on that day instead.

Warren Dragons Wind Up Grid Season Against Kane

Kane High School gridgers, victors over two of Warren county's three grid squads—Sheffield and Youngsville—will take on the third club, the fast-moving Warren Dragons, Saturday afternoon on the Hilltoppers' gridiron.

Kickoff will be at 2 o'clock.

Saturday's game will mark the end of the 1948 trail for the Lehighmen, with their record presently showing seven wins in nine tries. In addition to the Warren battle, Kane still has a Nov. 11 date with the unbeaten Smethport squad.

Tackling the Dragons may be a trifle too much for the Kane eleven to handle, but what the Hilltoppers lack in power, they make up for in spirit.

Kane finally hit its stride in last Saturday's 34-0 shellacking of Sheffield. The squad, operating off the T, opened up gaping holes in the Wolverines' line and followed up with good downfield blocking. Key men for the Kane squad are Signal-caller Bud Daly, who Warren fans will especially remember from last year's basketball campaign; Tommy Goodwin, light but extremely fast back; Otto Tiburg, also a good sprinter; and Rod Kerchner, southpaw passer.

Heath Sets Sights Upon A New Mark

New York, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Stan Heath, University of Nevada's aerial wizard who cracked the collegiate passing yardage record last week, had his sights set today on the total offense mark.

With six games out of the way and three to go, the wolfpack quarterback has tossed the pigskin for the amazing total of 1,643 yards to break a 10-year-old passing yardage record. He hit with 13 of 18 passes for 327 yards and five touchdowns Saturday against Oklahoma City.

Figures from the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau showed that Heath needs to get only 548 yards to surpass the total offense mark of 2,187 yards piled up in 1942 by Frank Sinkwich, former Georgia All America. Frankie's total came in 11 games.

Following are the top 10 players in each offensive category:

Total offense—Heath, Nevada, 1,640 yards; Berry, Texas Christian, 1,062; Justice, North Carolina, 987; Wendt, Texas Mines, 956; Finks, Tulsa, 939; Davis, George Washington, 850; Walthall, West Virginia, 802; Gilman, Kansas, 793; Jensen, California, 790; Fausch, Minnesota, 782.

Rushing—Wendt, Texas Mines, 929; Jensen, California, 686; Van Hoy, Utah State, 682; Stephenson, Army, 682; Papit, Virginia, 632; Thomas, Oklahoma, 615; Stuart, Army, 608; Silko, Notre Dame, 587; Berry, Texas Christian, 551; C. Scott, Arkansas, 547.

Forward passing—Heath, Nevada, 88 completions in 156 attempts for 1,643 yards; Finks, Tulsa, 75 of 139 for 937; Thomason, V. M. I., 61 of 116 for 815; Walthall, West Virginia, 53 of 107 for 813; Van Brocklin, Oregon, 51 of 99 for 750; Boyd, Washington and Lee, 49 of 101 for 617; Southard, Georgia Tech, 48 of 76 for 771; E. Songin, Boston College, 48 of 92 for 663; Rauch, Georgia, 46 of 95 for 581; Nagel, U.C.L.A., 45 of 84 for 770.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 3.—(AP)—The golf experts around here will tell you that the most promising young player to make the tournament circuit this year is Jackie Burke, a transplanted Texan, who plays out of White Plains, N. Y. One thing that's certain, Jackie is trying.

He had a 71 in yesterday's first round of the north and south open then went right out and began practicing his putting. What's more, he has the best pros in the business watching him when he practices. . . The catch seems to be that Jackie, whose father tied for second place in the National Open in 1920, is 24 years old and a war veteran.

He's not a kid, in the sense that Bobby Jones was when he reached the semi-final of the National Amateur, or that Francis Ouimet and Gene Sarazen were when they won the open at the age of 20. What some of the oldtimers want to know is: "Where are the kids who should be making the golf headlines," and if there aren't any, what's to be done to get the small fry interested in golf?

Election Note
Freddie Corcoran was following Sammy Snead around the course yesterday and "naturally" comparing him to Ted Williams. When Sammy Snead was delayed in a tee, Fred remarked, "Well, Dewey is leading." Snead perked up his ears. "Is he," asked Sam. "What did he go out in?"

Putt Me No Putts
Hearing that Sammy Snead has played practically no tournament golf in six months and that Clayton Hafner, another of yesterday's leaders, had taken a six weeks' vacation, Ucles Stranahan commented that he, too, laid off golf occasionally. Several times this summer he laid off for a week, said Frankie. Analysis of Sammy Snead by another pro—who'd better remain anonymous because he may play Sam some time: Snead has the greatest swing I've ever seen; if he could putt half as well as Ben Hogan and think one third as well, he'd win everything. . . Jim Turnesa, who won the north and south open last year with 284, started out with a 71 then. That's just what he shot yesterday.

Cleaning the Cuff: Mel McGhee, rookie basketball player with the New York Knickerbockers, also is a promising outfielder in the St. Louis Cardinals' chain. He hit .360 for Winston-Salem last season. . . Mel is the guy who'll tell you pro basketball doesn't seem rough after some games he played in Arkansas. . . Ray Bray of the Chicago Bears is considering an offer from one of the heavyweight wrestling circuits. Would it be unkind to say a lot of the grapplers look as if they might have any time? . . . Story around here is that Elmer Costa, North Carolina state freshman footballer, quit a $110 a week job in Paterson, N. J., to play "purity" football.

THREE BOWLING MEETINGS SLATED
Three meetings of interest to bowlers in Warren are scheduled for this week.

First of the confabs will be a meeting of team captains and bowlers of the X-Servicemen's League at the Warren Water Company office tonight at 7 o'clock.

Women bowlers interested in the newly-formed Ladies Matinee League will meet at the Arcade alleys Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. League bowling will follow the meeting.

On Saturday night at 7:15 o'clock the Warren Bowling Association will hold its second meeting of the 1948-49 season in the Elks Club. Secretary-treasurer Harry Wooster has asked each league to have representatives at the meeting so plans can be completed for the Association's annual spring tournament.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

Barney Senger put together three scores of 203, 177 and 216 for a 596 aggregate on Penn slides last night, but his team, the West Penn Oilers, wound up on the short end of a 3-1 count on match points in a match with Timmis Bros. Senger's teammates were Harbert and Teal in yesterday's first round.

Each had a 3-1 under par 68. Harbert, a four-time veteran, was one stroke back and Snead had a 70 to trail by two strokes.

Teal, who recently quit a job as an assistant at the Charlotte, N. C. Country Club after serving there about six months, is another stranger to big-time tournament golf. He led the qualifiers here last year with a 68 and recently finished fourth in the Carolinas open.

Other high individual performers included Jim Urbanski with 574; Harold Clepper with 572; Kinnears, "Mush" Johnson with 567 for Cheeks; and Norm Wooster with 561 for Timmis Bros. Timmis . . . 908 816 870—2595

MEN'S CITY LEAGUE

Two new league high scoring marks were chalked up in Men's City tennis league competition on Penn slides Monday night.

The first was a nifty 646 total credited to Jim Urbanski of the Warren Billiard Academy team for his games of 255, 187, 204. The second was a team high single game total of 983 sticks posted by the Building Block Works.

The Building Block Works put up a solid wall against Texas Lunch. Butte Krust posted a 3-1 defeat on Glendora, Coffee, and Carver House topped Dykes Dairy by a 3-1 count.

High individual performers, in addition to Urbanski, included Norm Wooster with 593 for Butte Krust; Frank Gerardi with 587 for Carver House; D. Bell with 583 for Texas Lunch; and M. Pappalardo with 582 for Building Block Works.
